

It is the responsibility of each employee to create a work environment of teamwork and guest service in order that the needs of our guests and each other are met.

Employee Handbook

This handbook outlines the day-to-day operations of Williamsburg Occasions LLC, dba The Catering Company, (referred furthermore in this handbook as The Catering Company) conditions of employment and general information about the company, job, and responsibilities. It is designed to answer most of the basic information of The Catering Company however, do not hesitate to ask any question nor make any assumptions; consult a manager about anything you may need to know or feel the need for further explanation.

Mission Statement

The Catering Company is dedicated to providing our guests an elevated level of standards and service that will exceed their expectations. It is your goal to provide an exceptional experience for our guests through a professional, clean, and safe work environment.

Our Approach

The Catering Company employs a team approach in order to provide the highest quality food, atmosphere and service. Although employees are responsible for performing their own duties, they are expected to help others when asked or when they see help is needed. Effective teamwork must be based on a strong foundation of professionalism.

The Catering Company strives to provide a work environment based on trust and mutual respect.

Overview of the Company

The Catering Company is the premier event company in the Hampton Roads and Tidewater regions and is dedicated to upholding our proven track record of success and excellence, including “Area’s Best” from The Coastal Virginia Magazine (formally The Hampton Roads Magazine) consecutively since 2010.

The Catering Company is owned and operated by Laura and Craig Reeves; the company is operated under the umbrella company Williamsburg Occasions, LLC. The company is comprised of two local bed and breakfasts, The Williamsburg Manor and The Williamsburg Sampler, and The Catering Company. Their local careers begin here in Williamsburg at Ford’s Colony of which slowly transitioned to The Catering Company in its present form.

The Catering Company started from humble beginnings in 1992 and was run out of the bed of breakfast.

Equal Opportunity

The Catering Company is an equal opportunity employer. Employees and applicants will be treated equally regardless of race, religion, sex, national origin or disability.

Harassment/Safety

If you feel you are being harassed, report the situation to your supervisor. Management will address the situation with the individuals involved. Confidentiality will be honored to every extent possible. If the situation continues, notify management immediately.

Confidentiality/Privacy

To insure the privacy of our guests, we do not share information about people who attend any Catering Company event. Employees are not to approach any guest with a personal agenda, i.e., autographs, handshakes, etc. Employees are expected to respect the confidentiality of the business and operations; any inquiries concerning The Catering Company guests or operation is to be directed to management.

Behavior

Everything you do on the premises of The Catering Company (this means any property the company owns or any off-site venue) property is visible to a guest. Thus it is important to be aware of your actions at all times. It is vital to the success of The Catering Company, and the employees, to maintain a professional attitude at all times, including your interactions with fellow employees. Treat each other with the respect you wish to receive.

Professionalism means...

...no drinking of beverages in view of the public...no leaning, folding your arms or putting hands in pockets or excessive joking...no propping feet up on walls or chairs...no reading, whistling, chewing gum or eating candy or mints...even something as innocent as brushing hair from your eyes should be done out of the public view. Conversations in public areas regarding non-work related issues are inappropriate. Gossiping and complaining are counter-productive and will not be tolerated.

Any discussion in the workplace of guests' tips and/or behavior is unacceptable and will result in disciplinary action which may involve but limited to suspension, reduction in compensation or termination.

Employment-At-Will

Virginia is a "Right to Work" State, and The Catering Company is an at-will employer. Employees may voluntarily resign from employment any time for any reason. However, proper notice is requested and expected.

Event Portfolio

The Event Portfolio or the “black book” has all of the important information about the event and is extremely important to each event. The purpose of the book is to outline all of the information needed to complete each event. The book contains the menu and general description for the event, responsibilities, hour log, ABC license and business cards. It is every employee’s responsibility to keep this safe and guarded, if found please return to the captain at the event.

What does the book mean to you; if you do not clock in at the shop the book has a log sheet in where you can record your hours with a manager’s signature; if a client asks for a business card you can retrieve it for them (you are to still find the manager and have he or she deliver the business card); you should know what is on the menu and the general description of the event. If any major questions arise you are to ask the manager.

Employee Time Clock & Break Policy

There is a time clock at the shop and you must clock in and out for your shift.

If for any reason you do not come to the shop first or at the end of the event, it is solely your responsibility to make sure your hours get recorded.

Handwritten time cards MUST be initialed by a Manager.

Failure to get initialed can result in a delay in your paycheck or a lack thereof until resolved.

Event staff will be given breaks and meals during their shifts; at the manager’s discretion.

Non-event staff will be given breaks during their shifts; you are required to clock out when leaving for lunch or personal reasons.

Uniforms

All staff must be in full uniform while at work, without exception.

Event Staff Attire

- The Catering Company will provide the employee with some of the necessary uniform requirements: (White Dress Shirt and Bow Tie) There are 2 uniforms event staff are allowed to wear – event uniform and set up uniform – you are expected to show up in your set up uniform and the manager will advise you on when you should wear your event uniform.
- Event Uniform - White Button down Oxford Shirt, Bow Tie, Black Dress Pants and Black Shoes (dress shoes are preferred but all black sneakers are ok [absolutely no colors are allowed on sneakers])

Drug Free Policy

The Catering Company explicitly prohibits while on company time:

- The use, possession, solicitation for, or sale of narcotics or other illegal drugs, alcohol, or prescription medication without a prescription.
- Being impaired or under the influence of legal or illegal drugs or alcohol.
- The presence of any detectable amount of prohibited substances in the employee's system while at work, while on the premises of the company or its customers, or while on company business. "Prohibited substances" include illegal drugs, alcohol, or prescription drugs not taken in accordance with a prescription given to the employee.
- The Catering Company will conduct drug and/or alcohol testing under any of the following circumstances:

FOR-CAUSE TESTING: The Catering Company may ask an employee to submit to a drug and/or alcohol test at any time it feels that the employee may be under the influence of drugs or alcohol, including, but not limited to, the following circumstances: evidence of drugs or alcohol on or about the employee's person or in the employee's vicinity, unusual conduct on the employee's part that suggests impairment or influence of drugs or alcohol, negative performance patterns, or excessive and unexplained absenteeism or tardiness.

POST-ACCIDENT TESTING: Any employee involved in an on-the-job accident or injury under circumstances that suggest possible use or influence of drugs or alcohol in the accident or injury event may be asked to submit to a drug and/or alcohol test. "Involved in an on-the-job accident or injury" means not only the one who was or could have been injured, but also any employee who potentially contributed to the accident or injury event in any way.

Smoking

The Catering Company provides our guests with a smoke free environment and does not make any provision for employee or guests that are smokers.

- No smoking is allowed in any vehicle or rental vehicle: during events or while any guests are present on property. When working at the warehouse you are only allowed to smoke outback and you must dispose of your cigarette butts properly. You MUST ask a manager before smoking.
- Due to the offensive nature of cigarette smoke, employees must not smell of cigarettes when reporting to work. Those employees who smell of cigarettes will be sent home to change or remove the offending article.

Theft

It is in everyone's interest to prevent theft. Theft of anything (silver, china, food, beverage, alcohol, cash, etc.) adversely affects the company. This includes the unauthorized consumption of food and beverages. Anyone found taking property from the company without the expressed permission of management is subject to immediate dismissal and prosecution. We encourage employees not to bring any personal belongings to the work place and make no provisions for the security of such items. The Catering Company will not be responsible for any employee items lost or stolen from the premises.

Employees should not make any assumptions as to authorized consumption or removal of property.

KEEP THE FOLLOWING TIPS IN MIND:

- Do not hesitate to report suspicious people or activities to management.
- Use any and all equipment with caution.
- Chemicals are to be used with caution and by direction only.
- Report any accident or injuries to your supervisor immediately to fill our accident report.

Our worker's compensation policy* requires that an accident report is filled out within 12 hours in the event of a workplace injury.

A Drug test will be required
In the event of failure of a drug test, the bill will become your responsibility.

Employees are not permitted to bring any weapons or firearms onto the premises.**

Emergencies

In the event of an emergency situation, stay calm and notify a manager immediately. If a manager is not readily available, call 911.

Security and Safety

The Catering Company is committed to the safety and security of its employees and guests.

General Fire Safety Tips:

- Keep all exit ways clear of blockage or debris.
- Know where the Fire alarm pulls are located in the buildings.
- Keep cloth or flammable material away from flame, lights, or heat source.

Fire

AS AN EMPLOYEE YOU SHOULD MAKE YOURSELF AWARE OF THE EXIT'S AND LOCATION OF PULL STATION FOR THE ALARMS, AS WELL WHERE TO LOCATE A FIRE EXTINGUISHER AND ALARM PULLS.

IN THE EVENT OF A FIRE:

- Remain calm, pull fire alarm and help direct guests and employees to the nearest exit.
- Once safely out of the building, help escort guests and other employees to parking lot, where everyone should report to the manager.
- Assist manager in identifying anyone who may still be inside so that the fire department may be informed upon arrival.
- Do not re-enter the building until authorized by the fire department.

Remember, if dense smoke is present, “stop, drop and crawl”.

“Smile - you are on stage!” Always maintain positive eye contact.
Use proper vocabulary with our guests.

Key steps for excellence:

- Use customer friendly body language and words.
- Use the guest’s name if and when possible.
- Identify customers’ needs.
- Maintain an attitude of service excellence.
- Handle difficult customers with care.
- Exceed customers’ expectations.
- Practice excellence at every customer contact point.

Dealing with Customer Questions

Be prepared to answer questions from guests concerning our name, ownership, menu, hours of operation, décor, etc. If you do not know the answer to a question, do not improvise, ask someone who knows.

Also, as a server you are expected to know how to pronounce the name of the menu items as well as the ingredients when applicable.

Dealing with Customer Complaints

Always be courteous to customers – listen to them. If the situation can be easily rectified, do so at once. If the situation is more serious, notify a manager immediately. Never lose a guest’s good will through apathy or inattention. Addressing the guest’s concern immediately is the responsibility of each employee.

No matter how trivial a guest complaint may seem, Management needs to hear every complaint as soon as possible.

Whoever receives a complaint ‘owns’ that complaint until it is resolved to the guest’s satisfaction.

Vacations

Vacation applies to salaried employees only, and is as follows:

- After one (1) year of continuous employment = 1 week of paid vacation
- After two (2) years of continuous employment = 2 weeks of paid vacation

An employee has one (1) calendar year (Jan.-Dec.) in which to use his or her vacation time.

All vacation should be requested in writing a minimum of two (2) weeks prior to the dates requested*, and once approved put on our Master Calendar.

All vacations are subject to the discretion of management and are dependent on the current staffing needs.

Any deviation from this policy must be approved by Craig or Laura Reeves

*Time requested off that happens to fall on a “no event” weekend, does not constitute the use of your vacation time.

Manager “on-call” Policy

A Manager must be “scheduled” on call whenever the owner is out-of-town, in case of an emergency.

This on-call status requires you to be within a half hour of Williamsburg and “sober” in order to respond to Catering and Bed & Breakfast emergency needs.

Illness or Inability to Work

If you find yourself unable or too ill to work, or suspect that you are contagious and should avoid affecting others, you need to notify your Event Captain or a Manager immediately.

Speaking or texting to another employee does not fulfill your obligation to speak to a manager.

In the event that you are unable to work a scheduled shift and fail to call in and speak to a manager to explain the unexpected absence, you run the risk of not being scheduled for future events.

Termination of Employment

Voluntary Termination

Employees are expected to demonstrate professional courtesy by giving adequate written notice prior to departure.

- Salaried employees are requested to give a minimum of (30) thirty days notice.
- Hourly employees are expected to give a least (2) two weeks' notice.

Failure to give such notice may adversely affect an employment reference and possible future employment by the Catering Company.

Involuntary Termination

Employees may be suspended or terminated for unacceptable conduct or performance as described in this handbook. Although this handbook sets forth the basic foundations and expectation of the companies policies it is in no way considered to be completely comprehensive. The Catering Company acts in good faith and adheres to the rules and regulation of the Commonwealth of Virginia Employment Commission and its governing bodies.

Upon separation, paychecks will be available at the next scheduled payday.

The Catering Company reserves the right to deduct the cost of un-returned uniforms, equipment, supplies, advanced funds, and advanced vacations owed to The Catering Company upon termination or separation from the employee's final paycheck.

Discipline

It is our hope that the policies and procedures set forth in this handbook have clearly defined what is expected of employees of The Catering Company.

In the event of violation of the policies, disciplinary action may be warranted.

The disciplinary actions by Management may take but is not limited to the follows procedure:

- A verbal warning.
- A written warning.
- Suspension and or dismissal*
- The severity of the infraction will determine the appropriate act and is at the sole discretion of Management

We hope that this handbook has helped you to understand our philosophies and standards. We trust that it answers questions you may have, and if not, please feel free to ask.

Please ask management about anything of concern not addressed in this handbook.

The Management reserves the right to amend, change or revise the The Catering Company handbook at any time.**
